Financial Support

The ASC 2018 Organizers are proud to partner with the IEEE Council on Superconductivity (IEEE-CSC) to provide financial assistance to participants attending the conference. Thanks to the generous grant from IEEE-CSC, student and non-student participants may apply for financial assistance that will waive the registration fee and/or provide for a travel stipend in exceptional cases. Applications are due Monday, July 9, 2018. Click here for additional information and to apply.

Student Paper Contest - Deadline: Wednesday, March 21, 2018

The Organizing Committee is arranging a contest for the best student papers. Interested students will be asked to submit a 2-page expanded abstract, along with a letter from their advisor confirming that the work was done primarily by the student, on or before Wednesday, March 21, 2018.
